

CAROUSEL PRESENTS...

‘A Change in the Weather’

by Matías Serra Delmar

29th September 2017 - 31st January 2018

Join us for an exhibition of bold, abstracting paintings from artist Matías Serra Delmar in our Next Door space this autumn.

Delmar's work is focussed on the inspiration he finds in colour, and is further informed by his fascination with landscapes and light. This exhibition takes his observations of light in the Herefordshire countryside as a primary subject, inviting the viewer to contemplate what is seen through light, both natural and artificial. By addressing and experimenting with the unusual characteristics and layers that light offers, Delmar seeks to create scenarios and moments that resonate with his audience.

By appointment only. Please email info@carousel-london.com to arrange a viewing.
