Ready for June, the two new ‘penthouse’ suites command towering views to the south and east. The Hayloft is currently undergoing finishing touches, with Edward Hurst returning to the team to help design something entirely new with its own exciting style. Pictures will follow once renovations are complete.

A photograph of a living room with dark wood paneling on the walls and ceiling. A large window on the left side allows natural light to enter. In the foreground, there is a dark wood coffee table with a glass top, holding a vase of flowers and some candles. A patterned rug covers the floor. To the right, a fireplace with a fire burning inside is visible. A small table with a lamp is next to the fireplace. The room has a warm, inviting atmosphere.
